

Solicitor

Being a Solicitor apprentice offers learners an unconventional, yet extremely exciting route to into legal practice. Over the five year programme, learners will have direct first line exposure to all facets of a legal firm, whilst developing exceptional communication skills, technical knowledge, and a systematic approach to their working practice. Our programme not only prepares learners for the Solicitor Regulation Authority (SRA) regulatory framework to achieve Solicitor status, but goes a step beyond by ensuring they have the knowledge, skills and behaviours to be an exceptional solicitor across a range of legal disciplines, whilst advancing their commercial awareness and operating processes.

Throughout the programme, we provide regular support and mentorship, whilst encouraging to learners to have increased exposure to increasingly complex cases, allowing them to continually adapt and utilise technical knowledge and experience to support associates, partners and senior partners across specific departments and the firm overall.
